

A PROJECT FOR PEACE IN EUROPE

Generations of European citizens are fortunate enough to have known Europe in a time of peace. It's all they have ever known. However some may not always realise the effort that is needed to keep this peace. So, using the example of the 25th anniversary of the fall of the Berlin wall, the partners of Kit for Peace will remind these generations that working towards a feeling of "Europeaness" by each individual and the commitment of each of its citizens which will ensure peace in the future.

How does this remarkable event in Europe's history still have relevance today for each and every one of us? In 2015, Graine d'Europe will produce an educational kit which can help each European citizen to be involved in ensuring peace in Europe. Graine d'Europe is also launching a call for participation.

For more information please see www.grainedeurope.eu

Whatever your age, your experience, your nationality, wherever you live and whatever you do... you can help us put together the educational kit we are producing.

Have you been particularly affected by an event, something that someone has told you, or even a film on this subject? If you remember the fall of the Berlin wall in '89, what did this event represent for you? And whether you remember it or not, what does this event represent for you in the current European context? Do you consider that peace has been reached in the European Union? As an European citizen, do you think that you can contribute to reinforcing this peace?

Join in Kit for Peace! Your answer can either follow the questions above, or you can choose your own way of presenting it. Your contributions can take several forms: a simple message by email, recordings of questions and testimonies, sounds, videos, photos, visual creations....
